I was just devastated to see this today. My name is Tim Daggy and I was Tom's roommate at GLC for 5 months back in 2015. I've never met or known anyone as easy to be around as Tom. He make me a better person and I will never live a day without his memory. Mary, please know my heart felt condolences.

He was a great man. He was my Bus Driver when I was in High School. During my freshman year, he got mad at a few of the kids in the back of the bus, of and on. I was always one to sit in the front of the bus, so I often caught several of his expressions in the mirror. Once I thought it was me, he was mad at...and the on the way off the bus he stopped me and had me sit back down, he wanted to talk with me. I thought for SURE he was mad at me then. But, after the kids all got off, and it was just Tom and myself, he said "Hun, I'm not mad at you..." And he continued to explain that it was the kids at the back that he was annoyed at, then he let me go into School. I will always remember that day. I will always remember how great I thought he was after that. May he Rest In Peace, and may all his loved ones remember him fondly, as I do.
Sincerely,
-Emily McDonnell
