“ Scott always had a kind word and a big smile. This photo is in our family album. A white tuxedo, a red Pontiac Fiero, and a little attitude.

“ *Scott and I shared a birthday. We often would talk about meeting up at the BMV together to get our drivers license. Meeting at Aggies for our first “legal” beer with our dads, or our night out on our 21st birthday in Bloomington (oh the stories)... Scott and I shared a lot of memorable times. Scott you will be missed! Love you Brother!!!
