“ I had the great pleasure of staying with Albert and Wilma and you all during a 2-week bible study when I was in my 20s, over 40 years ago. I will always remember your parent's hospitality and the positive influence they had on my youth.

“ I remember Albert, Wilma, and their grown kids from church in Indianapolis decades ago. He was a fine man. I was lucky enough to run into him a couple times here in the Bloomfield area. Condolences to the family. BP.

“ It is our belief that Albert strived to serve the Lord. It is a blessing for a Christian to be free from all the struggles of this life and be in eternal bliss. We were in Albert and Wilma's home for meals and visits. Their hospitality was abundant and we enjoyed the fellowship greatly.

Probably will not get cards sent, but want to convey our sympathy to Cindy and Grant, Ron and Editha, Gregg and Dianna, and the many other members of the family that we know. May God bless and comfort you all during this difficult time.

“ Albert and the entire Dowdy family were like 2nd parents/family to me in High School, some of the finest I've had the honor of knowing. They were very hospitable and giving, excellent role models for me as well. He is in a better place.
