“ Evelyn and I offer our deepest thoughts to Alice's family and friends. She is my cousin and one of my closest friends. Our friendship goes back to when we were in grade school at Furnace School. She was my protector and I owe her a lot of the credit for making me who I am today. We had planned to see her in early August but God had other plans for Alice. We shall remember her the way she was last June when we last visited with her. She will be missed by all who knew her. Prayers to Dick, Gary, Angie, Brian, Jude and Isaac. She touched all of us. Rest in Peace.

It is never easy to say good-bye but it is good-bye for a short time. You will see her again. May God's peace be with you now and in the days to come. Both of you will be in my prayers.
