“ I was honored that Mr. and Mrs. Roberts stayed in touch over the many years since my father, Thomas L. Carpenter, passed away in 1974. I looked forward to our exchange of Christmas greetings each year. Mother appreciated it, too. My father had often spoken of him so I knew they were more than co-workers at Crane, but friends. Alvin was my last contact with my father's friends, so I mourn with you. I wonder if they have reunited in Heaven, yet. Thanks to the family for remembering me when my husband died unexpectedly in September. I hope it's some comfort to know others care because it was very special to me to receive their condolences even though I had never met the Roberts' children. Remember your good times. “ Diane, Debbie and Steve,

I am so sorry for your loss. You all, especially Diane and Debbie were a very large part of my childhood, as we were close friends and neighbors. I will always remember those times and cherish the memories. Alvin is in heaven with your mother now, free from any pain and sadness. May God bring you all comfort during this most difficult time.
