“ Ann had the most tolerant tempermant. I remember visiting her when my son was quite young. He was playing on her patio and came in the house carrying these lovely Tulips he had hand-picked from her yard to give to mommy(me). Turns out they were expensive flowers her son Kevin had sent to her from overseas!! She kept her smile 😊 She was there for me through several troubled stages of my youth and I love her for being my strength during those times. Paula Kay
