

Anna Mae George

September 10, 1927 - November 7, 2014

Anna Mae George, 87, of Worthington passed away on November 7, 2014 at Greene County General Hospital.

She was born on September 10, 1927 in Martin County, Indiana to Chester and Lela Baker.

Anna Mae was a devoted member of the Bloomfield congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, she was a homemaker, a seamstress, a mother and a grandmother.

Surviving family members include, daughters, Janice Donahue, Kathryn Stinebaugh and Linda Elliott, her sons, Loren (Joan) George and Garry (Kelly) George, her grandchildren, Travis Donahue, Karyn Shawver, Rob Smith, Shelly Smith, Bill George, Jesse George and Sara George; her great grandchildren, Sasha George, Evelyn George, Rachael Sargent and Lanie Sargent.

She was preceded in death by her husband Lawrence O. George, her son Dennis Keith George and granddaughters Britnee Smith, Kelly Shawver and Kristy Shawver.

There will be visitation at Jenkins Funeral Home in Lyons from 2 to 8 P.M. on Wednesday November 12, 2014.

A Memorial service will be held on Friday November 14, 2014 at 5:00 P.M. at the Bloomfield Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

The family would like to thank the staff at Lyons Health and Living Community for their loving care and Dr. Esguerra for his compassionate care given to Anna Mae and his excellent attention to the family.

Online condolences to the family can be made at www.jenkinsfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

HR

“ Anna Mae was a wonderful warm friendly person and made me my favorite clothes as a kid. Every time I see seersucker clothes I think of her and smile. Enjoy Heaven you wonderful person.

Hal Rose - October 03, 2020 at 09:07 AM

AB

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." See also www.jw.org

A. Bell - November 13, 2014 at 03:13 PM

AS

“ We have so many fond memories of Anna Mae and your family. Our hearts go out to you all at this time. We love you Anna Mae!

Anne and Staci Sipe - November 11, 2014 at 11:46 AM

RS

“ I will always remember Anna Mae and all of the wonderful things she did for others - her caring heart, her generous spirit, and her love for her family were qualities that enriched everyone who knew her. With deepest sympathy, Riki

Riki Sipe - November 10, 2014 at 06:24 PM

MS

“ Dear George Family, So sorry to hear of Anna Mae's passing. She was always very kind to our family, as all of you have been. Such fond memories of swinging on grapevines over the creek, getting lost in the woods, and having the delicious lemonade made with love. Sadly, Molli

Molli Sipe - November 10, 2014 at 11:32 AM

JS

“ I am so saddened to hear of Anna Mae's passing. She was the most wonderful woman! We grew up with Anna Mae and her children, running and chasing each other, exploring the woods and getting into trouble. My twin Juli, her son Keith and I were inseperable! She was the best seamstress ever! Anna Mae started sewing for us as babies and we spent many days at her house. She was the best cook and on many occasions, not only sewed for us but made great dinners for us! (especially her cake and lemonade!) She will be greatly missed by our entire family. With my deepest sympathy, Jami Sipe

Jami Sipe - November 10, 2014 at 08:16 AM

MR

“ sorry about your mom

modena rollins - November 07, 2014 at 04:37 PM