“ *Ann was a part of a very treasured past of mine. She was always nice to me when I would come into the store or see her at church. I can never forget your mom and dad.
Here quiet Christian Witness spoke volumes more than the loudest preaching. She set a good example and touched my life with her light and I am a better person for knowing her.
There is no question where she is. Imagine what she is seeing and hearing at this very moment.
To all of the family, Kathy and I are always a telephone call away now and in the days to come.
It is a time of mixed emotions. The light of this earth has grown a little dimmer with her passing, but oh how much more brighter heaven is now with her there.
God bless you all.
In the Master's Name.

“ Janet, I, literally, do not have words to express my sorrow and my sadness during this difficult time in your life. I know she "prepared" for you a slew of memories that will remain with you for a lifetime. So let her memories be the ray of sunshine in your everyday activities!

She was such a sweetheart; very gentle, and so pleasant. I will always remember her soft eyes !

I was her caregiver a few years ago - she was a treasure ! I hold you and your family close to my heart in prayer !
