“ To Artie's love ones I extend my condolences.I worked with her at RCA and enjoyed being with her.We even shared a ride for a period of time.She was always jolly and easy going.She spoke often of her kids&Ronald.They were operating the doughnut shop at this time and she would deliver treats to a lot of people.It was a chore for her to do this but she did so with a smile.We had laughs as she managed to get in the car while carrying a box of doughnuts.Sometimes she had gotten flour on her while leaving the shop!We sure did enjoy them.The one I loved best was like a cinnamon bun but had icing covered with chopped nuts.At the time we worked in the same area we tested radios and stereos We had to wear big awkward headphones but still enjoyed what we were doing because we were glad to have jobs.She was doing all she could to try and help take care of her family.I know that each of you will miss her but you are so fortunate in knowing that she has gone to her Heavenly home. I pray that God will comfort you and bless you.Sincerely,Pat Sharr
