“ Jim and Janet, I was saddened to learn of Ava's passing. The Lord was waiting for her. She was one of God's most faithful servants.
She was a wonderful mother, teacher and such a fine lady.
She was my second grade teacher and I still have the vase she gave me for perfect attendance that year.
May you and your family have peace and comfort in knowing she ran such a good race and received her crown for her faithfulness.
