“ I am so sorry for your loss. We were just speaking of your sweet family a month or so ago and wondering how everyone is doing. I have many precious memories of your mom. She was kind, smart, and silly. I loved being around her. She was a wonderful neighbor, as were all of you. I remember her special recipes that she made, and still use her cheeseball recipe regularly and occasionally make a wacky cake. I am thankful for her and all of you. You will never know how those years on Elm Street with you all still touch my heart. May God's peace be yours, may your memories be comforting, and may the prayers of your friends lift you up during this difficult time.

“ Barb stopped aging for me a long time ago. I have great memories of those days on Elm Street. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. So very sorry for your loss. Lost my Mom right before Thanksgiving last year so I know some of the upcoming holidays will renew a sense of loss for you too. Blessings, Don Reid

“ Barb, Mary and Doris were like big sisters to me when I was growing up. We had many, many good times during those years, they were always there for me when I needed help or need cheering up. I was blessed to have so many aunts and uncles to share a lot of laughter and good times when we were together. Barb helped me get training for IBM Key Punch in Indianapolis when I graduated high school, and later after I got my first job, she and Derald moved me to Indianapolis.
The McRoberts family is a very special family that I love and will always keep in my heart.

Love and prayers,

Janet
