“ Dear Mr. Tibbett...

Michael called me to say Mrs. Tibbett's body had died.....(Clyde's girl friend for a lifetime. God blessed us both with good girl friends). Chief and I had expected to visit you both when we got back. I am sorry.

I have pondered for some time as to what can be said. A hug would be the best.

I can only try to imagine how you feel now, but I do shed tears with you.

The Bible says God's spirit can act as a Comforter to those who believe. So I pray for God's Spirit to do just that for you, both now and in the days to come.

You will have to ride your golf cart to our house for fried fish now. See you later.

“ Dear Doug and family,
I was deeply saddened to read that your mom passed. She and your whole family was such a positive influence on my life. Some of my earliest memories were at your house and as well as Ethel's, and they are very fond memories. Though I haven't seen your parents in a long time, I think of them often. My prayers to all of your family.

Your friend forever,

I echo Shane's sentiments and add that I have many wonderful memories growing up "next door" to the Tibbetts and spending time together at their house or Grandma Ethel's. Barbara was also so incredibly sweet to me and it brings me some peace to know she's now reunited with Ethel.
