“ *Beth, what can I say?
We had just reconnected a few years ago, but we talked on the phone a lot at night.
You told me you were looking for a new dog
after the heartbreak you shared with me about losing Belle. Now every time I see or hear about a puppy, you cross my mind.
I am sure your Dad and Belle are glad you came home.
I will miss our night time talks. I already do.
My family sends prayers and peace for your family. Thanks for dedicating your life to civil service jobs for your community.*

“ Beth was a one of a kind lady and I am so proud that I could call her friend. It didn't matter how much time passed between visits, you just picked up where you left off talking the last time. Beth loved to tell my kids stories about when we were youngsters and they loved Beth! She made them laugh. She would often tell them how her mom would tell her and me to quiet down when I would spend the night. Of course the quiet lasted about long enough for Betty to get back to her bedroom, again, but she was a good sport about it. Beth, you will sure be missed and Betty, you and the family are in my prayers.
