

Betty Jo Martindale

July 12, 1925 - March 9, 2020

Betty Jo Hayes Martindale passed away peacefully at Glenburn Home on Monday, March 9, 2020.

Born July 12, 1925 to Vernon and Hulda (Workman) Hayes, Betty was the sixth of 10 children.

Preceded in her death were her parents, her husband Frederick Martindale, whom she married on May 1, 1946, and her son, Freddie Joe Martindale.

Betty is survived by her daughter, Karen Bohley, of Indianapolis; two granddaughters, Jamie Bohley of Indianapolis and Tara Bohley of Durham, North Carolina; one great-granddaughter, Meagan Evans, of Worthington; and one great-great-granddaughter, Maylee Zygai, also of Worthington.

Betty was a homemaker who dearly loved her family and will be greatly missed.

Friends may call between 1 and 2 pm on Sunday at Jenkins Funeral Home. Services will be held at 2 pm Sunday at Jenkins Funeral Home with Rev. Jack Tolbert officiating.

Online condolences to the family are available at www.jenkinsfuneralhomes.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Hello! My name is Kimberly Nation. My grandmother was Betty's sister (Mary Hayes Nation). My father is Kenneth Nation (Oblong, IL), and I live in Vincennes, IN now. I was sorry to hear about Betty's passing. I do remember seeing her a couple of times when I was a child. I wish we could have made it to her services, but we found out about it after it was over. I do hope someone still sees this message.

“ In memory of Betty Martindale
Thank you to Glenburn Nursing Home, Jenkins Funeral Home, Rev. Jack Tolbert, and everyone for their cards, flowers, gifts, and acts of kindness.
A special thanks to all who came to the funeral home. You took a great risk in spite of warnings to stay away from groups of people due to the spread of the coronavirus.
With sincere gratitude,
Karen, Jamie, Tara & Meagan
