“ Brian.. How you were taken so fast, I'll never be able to explain. But what I can explain to anyone who asks is how absolutely amazing of a man you were. There was never a time in my life where I thought I couldn't come to you if I needed anything. We grew up together and watched each other turn into men. You were forced to grow up very soon and I think for that reason you have more respect from me than many other people who walk this earth. All I know Brian, is that I love you and I know you felt the same. A group of friends like us are very rare, and to lose someone a part of that group hurts more than I could have ever imagined. RIP Brian... Forever in my heart always on my mind and never forgotten.

“ I am sorry for your loss. May your rely on the God of all comfort during this difficult time. He is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalm 34:18) He promises that one day death will be no more. (Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:3,4) Until then, he provides us with the hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29) May you review these scriptures in your own copy of the bible. May they bring you comfort and hope.

“ Wes, Kelly and Family,
We are so very sorry for your loss. May God give you strength to endure the coming days. You are in our thoughts and if we can do anything, please do not hesitate. That's what neighbors are for!! We probably have a ton of paybacks due to you as many times as Nathan uses your parking lot for our breakdowns!!
