

Carey "Ed" Skinner

February 23, 1961 - December 11, 2009

Carey "Ed" Skinner 48, of Bloomfield, passed away at 4:40 p.m. Friday, December 11, 2009 at his residence.

Born February 23, 1961 in Noblesville, he was the son of Ronald Leroy and Ethel Louise (Crawford) Skinner.

He was a truck driver and heavy equipment operator for Crider & Crider, Inc. in Bloomington. He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed mushroom hunting, fishing and hunting.

Surviving relatives include: his wife Diane whom he married December 31, 2000; two sons, Jeremy Skinner (Heather) and Jon Skinner both of Bloomfield; stepson, Joshua Neighbors (Terri) of Bloomfield; grandchildren, Emily, Erin and Matthew; Brothers, Ronald, Gary and Max Skinner; and sisters, Ruth Ann and Bonnie.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

There will be no public visitation. A private graveside service will be conducted at a later date at Walnut Grove cemetery. Jenkins & Sons Funeral Home in Bloomfield is in charge of arrangements.

The family asks that all memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Online condolences to the family are available at www.jenkinsfuneralhomes.com.

“ I remember my brother growing up his momorys will be forever with all of us. The worse thing I remeber about Ed is when dad accidndlyshot him when they were huring we all suffer thought this but God gave us the strengthto pull though we are thankful for all the time we had together. I know what he must had went thought with his cancer cause I had cancer and I was just thankful to be here today and I give god all the glory. Ed we love you.
