“ I was a classmate of Carolyn at Bloomfield. We became Facebook friends in November. I just learned of her passing today from a fellow classmate. She was a beautiful person in many ways. My sincere sympathy to her family.

“ Prayers for strength and comfort for all the family at this time of grieving. Losing our loved ones is never easy. I remember Carolyn from the days when we were young in high school. She was a couple years ahead of me in school, but in small town schools you knew about everybody. I got to be reacquainted with her and her husband a few years back, when they started to come to Gethsemane Tabernacle where I attended church. After her husband had passed away m, a group of us who had lost our husband started gathering after church and would have snacks and talk, long into the night. Now two from our little group is gone and one is down with a Broken hip. Sure miss our good times together but I know Carolyn Is rejoicing to be with Jesus and her husband. She loved our Lord very much. Love you Sister Carolyn
