“ Sue was a special lady so giving and caring will miss her and all the homemade goodies she would bring over especially at Christmas time

“ I have so many memories to share, Sue was my mentor, friend, she meant more to me than I could ever tell. I was her caregiver and we shared so much, she was my second Mother, Sue made the best grill cheese sandwiches, peanut butter fudge, she would send me the sweetest notes, I will miss her sitting on my swing, she had a special knock so I always knew she was there. Over the last months we would have our daily devotions, she would give me her take on them. Sue was such a private person, she never let you leave her home with out her special wave, to say I will miss her would be a under statement, I will always love you Sue, thank you for everything, and mostly your friendship and love. Give my Bill and hug for me. Rest easy my friend. Sue touched her heart and pointed to me, I knew she was telling me she loved me.

“ We shared a very special friendship and many wonderful times and adventures. You always said God placed me in your life when you needed someone to be a true friend. That was a two way street. I will miss our dining experiences as simple as eating hot fries in McDonald's parking lot and people watching to having High Tea at Longaberger in Ohio. I loved cruising the streets of Martinsville especially at Christmas looking at decorations and you recalling who once lived in houses and the families history. I loved sitting at your table drinking hot tea and eating homemade cookies. I loved your kind soul and at times "Hell with them" attitude. You taught me a lot about life. My family loved you as much as I did.

I know Heaven is as wonderful as we talked about and in your own words told me you were ready to go home. I will see you again. In the meantime, enjoy visiting your family and pets that went before you.

To me you will always be in my heart as "My friend Sue". Vickie Kivett
