“ *I remember Charlie from many, many years ago. I was only about 5-6 years old and he kept a horse in my Grandmother, Edith Maddocks barn on South Seminary St. He had a pony cart and a beautiful little black pony named Cappy that he hitched up and took My sister Edie & I for a ride around the yard. It was a beginning of love that started for the 2 of us with horses. We just thought the world of he & his wife. They let us watch and feed the pony, it just meant so much to us. My family has had so much respect for Charlie & his family. He was one of the kindest people we have had the pleasure of knowing in our life. Our thoughts & prayers are with his family. “ I had the pleasure to know Charlie for years including him giving me a job at the brickyard during the summer my junior year. He always treated me with respect and I found him to be one of nicest man I knew. I was fortunate that he and his wife would stop by just to say hi when I was at the hospital.
My sympathies to the entire family.

“ Our greatest memory of Charlie would be the number of times we would get together to have Marty's great BBQ ribs. Charlie would share stories of times past and his love of life. He and wife Phyllis were great people to just sit and visit with here in Florida. He's the reason I named my business Vans, he never called me Marty, always called me Van!! We will miss you Charlie.

Charlie was a great person. I worked on the Ambulance Service when he was Sheriff. He ALWAYS invited the Crews to the "old jail" kitchen and told us to eat what we wanted, and to make ourselves at home. In 1976, when we lost our Step-Dad Kenny Weddle, Charlie was one of the first to arrive that morning and offer anything he had to help us. I will never forget his (and Phyllis's) selflessness and GENUINE compassion for others!! After Mortuary College, I worked in Franklin, IN. My boss had several class photos from way back. I couldn't believe it!!!! There was Ole Charlie in one. I had no idea until that moment he was a Funeral Director!! I honestly can't think of anyone that didn't just love and admire Charlie. Our deepest condolences, thoughts and prayers go out to his WONDERFUL family. God Bless You All.
