“ Having resided in the area during childhood, my husband Clifford Trowbridge and I made visits to Chuck and Dorothy and together we drove through the countryside sightseeing while remembering days gone by.

Cliff has passed away as well but those precious memories will linger on.

Dorothy and her entire family has been friends since my childhood.

Chuck and Cliff will be missed, both leaving wonderful families.

“ Lester Helms was my gmpa Fisher's best friend. Farming with Chuck and the Helms was a way of life. Best childhood memories ever. I could watch Ruth make those rugs all day. I loved helping Chuck milk the cows. Im a Country girl at heart, and still love cows. We played in Haslers Ole barn at the Orchard. My mom worked there and brought home the best apples. We would play with the collie dogs. I still have scars on my knee from chasing Loren in the gravel at the farm. My Sis Rosemary cut her foot when we was milking for Chuck. Loved the Ole Country Store. I could say so much. They were my best childhood memories. Jane was cheerleader in my class. Roger was a basketball player in Rosemary's class. My sincere condolences 🙏 to each of you. Love Susan(Fisher) Gentry. Hugs 📦 & Prayers & Love. ❤️📦❤️📦❤️📦❤️📦❤️📦

“ It meant a lot to my parents, Joe and Milly Uland, to have frequent visits in their last years from Chuck. He would walk right in the back door without knocking just like a member of the family. He'd pull up a chair close to Dad who couldn't hear well and talk about what was happening on his farm and in the community. As I was growing up Dorothy and Chuck were special people I looked up to. Chuck is one of the last patriarchs in the Park community and Walnut Grove Church and he will be missed!
