“Mr. Tibbett, as I called him, was my neighbor for some years. He would drive up to our place just to see what was going on. The last 2 years or so, after they took his car keys away, he would come up in his golf cart. We would discuss whatever I happened to be doing and trade tales of past projects. It was a most pleasant time. Then he was not able to do that anymore, so most days when I was around, I would get his mail and paper and take it inside to him. Sometimes I even helped him work on the puzzle he had on the table. Sometimes we shared a little food treat. Often, we talked about his faith in Jesus. Ironically, his body died on my birthday. I had a wonderful day with my wife and family on that day. As it turned out, so did Mr. Tibbett. See you later, Sir.”

“Jim and Doug and families, we are so sorry to hear of Clyde's passing. We just now found out. Kenny just spoke with Clyde the week before. We always enjoyed visiting with both of your parents. The pandemic has prevented visiting times. May God put His arms of comfort around each of you. In Christian love, Kenny and Betty Edwards”
