“ So sorry to hear this news. Cindy and I met when we worked at Spencer Gifts in Charlotte, NC back in the late 70's and also lived in the same apartment complex. We both shared a love of NASCAR racing and she was a big Richard Petty fan. We stayed in touch over the years when she moved to Florida. Thinking of JJ and the family as well as the fur babies.💔

“ Cindy and I were in High School together in Puerto Rico, (Navy Brats), and we all reunited, thanks to the Internet, around 2000. So there have been many reunions where we met each others families, and JJ was always a group favorite, he and Cindy arriving at Reunions on their Harley's. She left us all with her handmade gifts of love, never forgetting a Birth, Birthday or wedding. She is missed.

I miss her! She was such a kind and thoughtful person! We left Rosey in the middle of the school year! My Dad ask the father of another friend if he would send my annual when they arrived! So Dad payed him to send it but he never did! So Cindy copied every page of her Annual and sent to me! I don't have words for what that meant to me! We stayed in touch after that! My heart is sad and I am praying for her husband and any other family who I know will miss her! I know I will see her again one day! ❤️🙏
