“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of David. I have a lot of good memories of him and my teenage years. He helped me build up the courage to jump from the cliffs of the Dugger strip pit!
May you have many wonderful memories of David and know that he is now at Peace and with our creator. I think David would want to be remembered with Love and Laughter. Peace to All.

“ To Big Dave and Family. I am at a loss for words. I have many fun memories of Dave and the guys. I know of the loss of a family member since we lost Mike several years back. I truly believe that God will give you peace in this time of grieving. Tammy, I am so sorry. I wish I was able to be there for the funeral. I have often thought of Dave and wondered what he was up to. I am praying for you. God Bless. Mark and Family.

“ I write to offer my sincere condolences to the family and friends on the passing of your love one. When unforeseen occurrences befall us and the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It also may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love Yes, it is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. I have found the Bible to be very comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4, our Heavenly Father has promised in the near future that “death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Our Heavenly Father has also promised that there will be a resurrection: “and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous...” What a grand reunion that will be! You and I have the prospects of seeing our love ones again under the best condition possible, a beautiful Paradise earth; God’s original purpose for mankind. All of God’s promises will come true, for it is impossible for Our Heavenly Father Jehovah to lie. I pray that these scriptures provide comfort to all of you. Once again, you have my sincere condolences -John 5:28 & 29, Psalms 37:29, Luke 23:43, Hebrews 6:18. For additional information concerning this subject, please visit www.watchtower.org

“ Tammy, Ashley and all of David’s family - I am so sorry! What memories I have of Dave. We had some great conversations in high school art class! He also came to the hospital after a car accident I had a few years ago, brought me flowers and called to make sure I got home okay. What a sweet tough guy!!!
