“ Me and Davie go way back to Hashtown when we where both very young. We had many memories and so many stories to tell. We once took a canoe trip from the Viaduct down Richland creek all the way to Highway 53. it took about 6 hours and we ran out of beer after about an hour. We had a lot of fun that day spending most of the trip taking the canoe out of the creek and dodging trees and limbs. Dave was a true friend and he will be missed.

“ Davy Hash was willing to "hold a check" for us when my husband was fighting cancer. Never refused, he was a good friend to us. I loved his sense of humor. He would give his opinions, with quick wit.

“ And when great souls die,
after a period peace blooms,
slowly and always
irregularly ...
Our senses, restored, never
to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed. They existed.
We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.

“ Davy was probably the best friend anyone could ever have. Most people don't know the Beth and I both have March 13 has birthdays. Every year we go out to eat and every other year Beth pics where go out to eat and the next year I pic ; and she pics I pay ; the first year me Adelia went to eat , we ate at Little Zagreb's in Bloomington . The next year I picked Owensboro Kentucky for the best Bar BBQ. Buffet. The next year Beth picked Snitzlenboc Jasper. Remember when she pics they pay. Last year I picked Arch Abby Ferdinand where Catholic Preist go to live forever. Now you must understand they live in Poverty. The only way to make enough money to feed everyone and pay their bills they sell newspapers and mainly Caskets. They cut their own wood because all Caskets are made of some kind of wood. So far a Walnut Casket it was about $1800, a cedar was much cheaper. Davy and Beth said they were beautiful. Now last year Davy said why don't we just pay for what we eat. I knew why he said that; he knew I didn't have enough money to pay for an expensive meal. That's the kind of guy Davy Hash was. Davy has loaned me money anytime I have ever needed anything. Davy and Beth have been the best friends I have ever had.
