“ I have missed Deborah greatly at work. She was such a kind person and had that great quick wit. One of the last messages we received from her was about the New Years Eve "party" at Meadowood. She kept us entertained even when she was feeling so ill. I loved her. I'll miss her. I'm sure she is enjoying all the puppies and colts in heaven.

“ Mark and family. I thought the world of Deb as a fellow believer in our Lord Jesus Christ. Deb always made me laugh and even with her illness she always had a friendly smile. The good thing is being absent from the body and present with the Lord she has no more pain or illness. God bless you all and we know we will meet Deb again in Gods kingdom. Praise God for giving us time with our departed sister Deborah.
