“ I babysat Denise and Debbie back in the 1960s. They were a joy to be around and we had a good time crossing the street to the park and going to the swimming pool. We did not worry about sunscreen like they do now and the first time we went to the pool we all got sunburn!

Very sad to here of her passing and sending condolences and prayers to the family.

“ Denise was my Camp Illiana friend. I remember she used to live in Bloomfield on West Mechanic Street. This was way back before social media so even though we only lived 12 miles apart, we would write back and forth during the winter and meet up at Camp Illiana in the summer. I have very fond memories of Neecey and have often wondered where she had ended up making her home. I tried looking up Denise Steele on Facebook but without any luck. I am looking forward to meeting up with her one day in Heaven. To her family, my sincere sympathy. Please feel free to contact me if you can share what happened to Denise. Love and Prayers, Sara Moore Correll.
