“ My sweet Aunt Di, There are so many stories I can tell about you, how kind, generous, selfless and sweet you were. Memories of how you had to ship my Munk Munk back to Indiana when you lived in Texas because I forgot him while visiting, my excitement waiting on grandpa’s porch watching for you when you came back to Newberry for a visit, our trip to The Gulf of Mexico, the bell pepper jelly you would make, the excitement you had when Makeisha was born, you loved that little girl fiercely, all the “shows” she put on dancing by your fireplace, the crazy hat you made her for school, the effort you put in to find her the “magic baby stroller” she wanted for Christmas. You were such a staple in my life growing up, I knew I could come to you with anything, I will always cherish the memories and always love you.

“ While we grieve our loss of Diane (Aunt Di to many,) we remember her legacy. She was the most compassionate, funny, headstrong, law-laying, all inclusive Aunt that ever lived. She made sure everyone had a plate to eat and offered love like one other. Diane always had a big, beautiful smile to share with the world while offering her often hilarious opinions. I am honored to know you - - Aunt Di. Hugs to Matt and Vic and all the family. ❤️
