

Donna Mae McNutt

November 7, 1958 - March 11, 2026

Donna Mae McNutt (née Shardy), 67, of Bloomfield, Indiana, passed away peacefully at home on March 11, 2026.

Donna was born on November 7, 1958, in Mercer, Pennsylvania, to Frank and Nancy Shardy, both of whom preceded her in death.

Donna spent many years teaching at Eastern Greene Elementary School, where she cared deeply for the children she worked with. She was known for her gentle nature and the quiet kindness she showed to everyone around her.

She was a member of Solsberry Christian Church and previously attended Cincinnati Christian Church. Donna enjoyed gardening and spending time outdoors, and she especially loved raising monarch butterflies.

Donna is survived by her sons, David McNutt (Johanna) and Joshua McNutt (Kristin); her granddaughter, Winnie; and her sisters, Carol (Duane), Susan, and Diane. She was preceded in death by her parents and her former husband, Jack McNutt.

In accordance with Donna's wishes, cremation will take place and no services are planned.

Donna will be remembered for her kindness, humility, and the care she showed to the people in her life.

“ Donna I miss you ..remembering all of our childhood memories..
You were so indecisive but yet so precise in everything you did Towards the end you were so strong brave and fought so hard didn't expect any different..

We will see you when we see you

With Love ❤️

“ I met Donna when she joined our team at the At Home store. She always brought a smile and a laugh during her shift. Was such a dependable hard worker. She shared my love of flowers . And her dedication to helping Monarch Butflies.

My heart goes out to her son's.

I'm glad I got to know her. And am greatly saddened by her passing

“ I met Donna when our sons were elementary classmates, baseball players, and friends.

Working together at Eastern Greene, Donna was consistently positive, kind, dedicated, and on the move! Her work ethic was unmatched and we were always greeted with her infectious smile.

My thoughts are with Donna's family.
