“ My sister Doris, what a wonderful person she was! My favorite memories of her was with the three younger children of our family. When I was born she was 12. Not just an ordinary per teen. She was the one that pitched in and helped our mother with the raising of her three younger sisters. One of her jobs was giving us baths and getting us ready for Sunday school every Sunday morning. She would dress us in our Sunday best and go with us. There she played the piano. I do not ever hearing her talking back or complaining about any of that. What a wonderful sister we had.

“ Doris is my sister and although there were several years between us, time brought us closer. Doris and I have traveled together, shared a lot of meals together, watched a lot of new years come in, laughed and cried together. I am going really miss her. She will always have a special place in my heart and mind. Loving you forever, Wilma
