“ Mama's hands were strong and calm as they held on to mine

*Yes mama's hands held on to mine to guide me day and night
And it took the sting of mama's hands to teach me wrong from right*

*When times were bad and money slim she'd fold her hands and pray
And somehow she would make the food hold out another day*

*Now mama's hands were cold with age, they tremble as she prays
But her voice is strong as she thanks God for all the bygone days*

She looks at me and then she smiles she knows I understand That everything I am today I owe to mama's hands

Good night my precious rose

With my love forever your loving son, Mike
