“ Ed was a wonderful, Godly man. My husband's family has known him for years and I became friends with him several years ago when his wife was in Glenburn, where my mother made residence. Ed came, faithfully, almost every day. He always spoke words of wisdom and kindness to everyone he encountered. Ed will be missed by many, but never forgotten. When I think of Ed, a smile always comes upon my face, every time. Rest in peace, dear brother. I'm sure you were ushered into heaven by a host of angels.

“ I will never forget the day I met Ed and his Granddaughter Hannah while horseback riding on a beautiful spring day at Greene Sullivan State Forest. I was riding alone and heard this great chatter going on. I stopped and waited, and along came Hannah and Ed, both clearly enjoying their time together. Ed invited me to join them, expressing concern that I was riding alone. That day was the beginning of a special friendship, centered around our love of horses and trail riding. I feel very blessed to have known him, and to have met several of his family members. His love of life, family, friends, community, and God will never be forgotten. Heaven has welcomed a kind, loving soul. Rest in Peace Ed.
