“ Dear Love ones of Elva Joyce (Lee) Wilkerson:
My heart goes out to you and your families. Joyce and I were great friends in Bloomfield High. We had some wonderful times that will never be forgotten. She was a little gal with a big heart and was kind to everyone in school. I received a sweet note from her about six months ago and she said she was ready for God to call her home. Now she is no longer in pain and is happy in the Lord's house with her loved ones that have gone before her and is just waiting to see all of her old friends and her family that are left behind.
My deepest sympathy to you all and may God bless you and keep you.

“Debbie, you don't know me but your mother and I were best of friends (and classmates) in our teen years. I spent nights with her on Wildcat Road. What fun we had. She was a sweet lady and I'm happy that I talked to her a couple months ago. I'm glad she is with the Lord and we can see her again some day. You are in our prayers. ArrahWanna

“Debbie, Jimmy and Eric, I was so sorry to read about your mother. She was always so fun, I remember when she lived across the street from my mom. She had a car that didn't run and it had two hanging racks with clothes on the racks; she told me it was an extra closet. I loved the ingenuity of that idea. She kept me laughing when I talked with her. Please know you are in my thoughts.
