“ Bob and Phyllis,

I wanted you to know I have happy memories of all of you. Those days of my childhood on North Seminary Street in Bloomfield are long gone, yet as I said so many happy memories of that time including your family.

Bob or Bobby as I remember, do you remember you called me "Short Pants" because you saw me once in shorts? Wonderful memories.

My God be with you in this hour, and may he bless and keep you in all the days to come.
