“ Eva was such a sweet lady. I rode with her, years ago, to RCA, along with Ivy and Lynne Wells. I saw her a few years ago in Linton when we were both shopping and we had a long, awesome chat. She was a hard worker and was always smiling. Her family is in my prayers.

“ Eva and I worked together at RCA. She was a sweet person. She was always smiling and seemed so happy. The last time I saw her she was grocery shopping and relaying to me what she was going to cook. I pray that God will be with her family at this time.

“ Eva was not only my best friend's Mom, but one of the many mothers in the neighborhood who looked out for me as a child who didn't have a mother at home. Every Holiday she brought food knowing we would just be busy running the store, etc. ”
