“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. It will always be a precious memory that will be with me when I would drive by and see him mowing his lawn. He wanted to do for himself and stay active and it was a blessing he was able to remain active until he was taken from this earth. Sorry we could not make it to the visitation to be with you all due to prior obligations. May God Bless your family.

“ Everett was the greatest bus driver any kid could wish for!! He always had treats ready for us, as we were getting off the bus, when we were heading into our holiday vacations. He took us to the skating rink...all of us loudmouth kids..how he did it, I don't know. I do know that I've always told my own kids, that they couldn't have a better bus driver. Everett, was a great man. He loved us all and had a huge heart. I'm 39 years old and still remember....I was 13 back then. My condolences go out to his family. I'm so sorry for your loss, he was a wonderful man!!
