“ Faye was a wonderful and charming woman that we will always remember and love. We only knew her for a short time, but that time was knowing a good-hearted woman. Danny once described Faye to me as "his rock." I can easily see why. My faith teaches me that Faye today is in one of the mansions that our Lord has prepared for us. The Promise our Lord made to us will sustain us until that time when we will once again meet. Rest in Peace, Sister.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, and the kind acts of friends and strangers, give you the comfort needed to endure the days ahead. May you find comfort from the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I can remember the first time I ever met Fayelynn. Her daddy and I took a trip to Texas to surprise her,Dan, and Jon. That was in 1998. The look on her face was priceless,just like her heart. She loved and excepted everyone. I loved that girl and I am going to miss her.
