“ To the Pearson family, before I share memories of Gary, I must, belatedly, pay homage to his mother, Alice, who passed away a year and a half ago. I want to offer my most sincere condolences for the loss of your matriarch. Alice was one of the most sweet, kind and caring women I've ever had the pleasure to know. I'm truly blessed to have known her.

To the rest of Gary's family: Dick, Brian, Jude, Isaac, Angie, grandkids & great-grandkids, I offer heartfelt sympathy for your loss. While Gary and I were the same age, we didn't socialize until we both were out of the Army. It was always fun being with him. From skinny dipping in Solsberry to killing yellow jackets in the back yard of a house we shared up by the cemetery to doctoring him up after running a 4" splinter into his foot on the trailer's new front porch, etc. He was almost always upbeat and happy and fun to be around. But my favorite memory was when I went with him to some shindig at the CMO club at Crane. If Gary hadn't taken me, I might not have met my future wife.

A good and loyal friend who never knew a stranger. RIP, pal.

“ Angie I am so sorry to hear about Gary! But I am happy he is no longer in pain. He is with his mom and his good friend Bobby Don. I will always remember him telling me to leave my window open just to aggravate my mom... She would say " No she won't Gary" and we would all laugh. Gary was a kind-hearted soul and a funny man. I will always remember him with a smile on my face...My condolences to Angie and his family!
