“ So sorry to read about Gary's passing. He was in the same unit as myself in Vietnam (1967). After I returned to the states I lost track of him, as he continued serving our country. He was the life of the party. Although he's gone he's not forgotten. May He Rest In Peace!

“ I dated Gary for 6 months or so in 1970. He was SO much fun. I only wish I had been able to reconnect with him before he died. He was so cute with his long blond hair and his motorcycle and big muscles. He had such a good sense of humor and always made me laugh. I met him at a mutual friend's wedding reception at a VFW. Gary served the punch wearing his old jeans and undershirt and kept winking at me and asking me to give some punch to that pretty lady at my table (my mom) and that's where it all started. Later I lived in TX for 30 years and now I'm back in Indy and so sad I couldn't find him again. I'm sorry for your loss.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Gary was a wonderfully funny guy who we worked with at Fort Benjamin Harrison when it was open. He worked for my husband, Matt Dicks, who is deceased, and with my brother, Brad Sullivan, who is deceased. Gary was a great person and one of the hardest workers I have ever met. He will be sorely missed.

“ Well Gary, I didn't get to see you and I'm damn sorry about that. I'll see you up at the big-house, when GOD takes me. Again, I'm sorry I didn't get over there (RIP) my friend. We sure had some times at school and I'll always remember them. (LOVE-YOU- MAN) Don Sims (DCHS of 1965)

“ I am sorry to hear about Gary. Although I haven't seen him since high school, I often thought about him. He came to my house in Mars Hill often and we would shoot pool. He will always be remembered.

“ I dated Gary for a while in 1973. He made some wonderful memories for me. We went out for Steak dinner every Friday night. He introduced me to lobster, but told me I ruined it by putting salt and pepper on it. (so funny) Now "everytime" anyone talks about Lobster I always think of Gary. He was a great/fun guy. He will always be remembered. My prayers go out to the family at this time of loss.
