“ Valerie, thinking of you and your family today with heartfelt sympathy. May you find comfort in knowing God's love and accept His many blessings He has for you. Your Dad will always be with you, keep his memories close. Cry for a little while, the hurt of the heart will pass. We will continue to lift you up in thought and prayer, for God cares for you. We love you. Grace and peace to you.

PS

“ So sorry to hear of George's passing. Sending prayers to all of the family.

I remember George as a quiet guy with a shy smile.....playing cards....and since he was older he spent more time with my brother, Phil, when we all went to visit. So thankful that George fully accepted Jesus and we will see him again. RIP, George Wesley, and give Dad (Gordon), Uncle George, Aunt Donna and Aunt Louise hugs.

Rick and I will not be able to attend on Monday as it is our first day of school and Michael is working up north. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
