“ Helen was such a blessing to the Luther clan. First she was the loving wife of Bob. He lived so many more years because of her love for him. Next she held the Luther family together by hosting so many holidays. There was never a time I did not feel welcomed in her home. But most of all she loved us all and showed it in so many ways. Angels like her have a special place in heaven.

“ I haven't much talked to Helen the last few years, but she was never one to talk on the phone.... For most of my childrens younger years, Helen was Gramma Luther to us and we spent every single holiday and many, many weekends at the Luther home in Houston before Bob passed away, and before my own husband, Joe, passed. Joe was Helens "step" grandson, I suppose, but she was always Gramma to us and one of the most kind, loving, giving women. She called it JUST like she saw it and would tell you without skipping a beat, go right to offering you some coffee, or to play cards! Gramma LOVED to cook big holiday meals and I will always be grateful to her sharing her home with us for many Easter, Christmas and Thanksgivings. One thing Gramma loved was making her biscuits and gravy! She could make it like no one Ive ever know.... and always said "I LOVE making this and eating it but always eat too much and end up miserable!!"

I am sad that I hadn't talked to her in so long, though we always sent our Christmas card and birthday card...I am happy to know that she lived her final time on the earth with her Indiana family, she was always so excited when they were coming to Texas... I also find comfort that she is now with her loving husband, Bob, whose life would not have been so wonderful if he didn't have her taking care of him!

Thank you Gramma, for being a part of our lives, rest in peace, you beautiful lady

ALL OUR LOVE,
Jen, Emily, Jake and Elijah Luther
