“MaryAlice and John, I'm so sorry to hear of Uncle Herbert's passing. I'll always remember your dad and mom coming down to our house and going fishing. Mom and Dad loved getting together with them. This will be difficult for the two of you. Life changes when your parents go. Stay close. The two of you can be a comfort to each other. You know it was just a short year ago, March 7th, that we buried Mom. That was tough, as this will be, for Aunt Dorothy and Aunt Mae. I know from experience how difficult it is to lose a sibling. Those gals have always been so family oriented, and they've now seen five of their brothers and sisters buried. My prayers are with all of you.
