“ Rhea Dawn and Jill My mom, Margaret and I were sorry to hear about your mom. We used to have such a good time coming to your house when Margaret and I were kids. It seems like I can remember the two of you hanging off the swing set in our backyard - at my age, that may not be a real memory, but I like it so I'm keeping it! You're in our prayers.

“ Dear Jill and Rhea Dawn,
I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Jewell has kept me posted on your Mother. I remember her so fondly. I can still see the both of you when you were very little girls. I'm sure you will find peace in the fact that your Mother is at peace and in no pain.
Sincerely, Jan Figg

“ Rhea Dawn, Jill and families. So sorry to hear about the passing of your Mom. Have great and 'funny' memories of her being our 'bridge teacher', many years ago. Always enjoyed being around her. Will be thinking of all of you at this time.
