“ Jack was one of the nicest and most sincere human beings I have ever had the privilege of coming across. He had a warmth about him that could put anyone instantly at ease. I very much valued my friendship with Jack, our car rides together to ref football games in which we often talked about classic rock and guitars, and the long Saturdays and Sundays we spent together reffing youth league football. Jack was truly a gift to all of us and is someone I will never forget and very much miss. Rest In Peace my friend.
