“ I was saddened to learn of the passing of my cousin Jim Boyd. Although our lives took different directions as we grew older I have fond memories of visiting with him at my uncle Harlan's home near Tulip. We spent many days doing all the things boys do when they are growing up. Along with his older brother (Harlan Ray) we explored every hill and holler we could find. I did not know he was a retired member of the U.S. Army but thank him for his service to all of us. May he rest in peace that he deserves.
