“ Uncle Jim is the one who introduced me to saltine crackers and milk when I was 10 years old. In the summers when we would visit that would always be our late-night snack together after Grandma and Aunt Mae had gone to bed. I am so glad I have those memories with him. I will miss him very much but I am glad he and Aunt Mae have been reunited!

“ I am so sorry for your family's loss. I fondly remember staying the night with Missy and going to Grandpa Jim and Grandma Mae house. Such lovely memories.
