

James B. Isenogle

May 23, 1930 - December 18, 2008

James B. Isenogle, 78, of Avon , Indiana passed away Wednesday, December 18, 2008 at the Westside Garden Plaza Skilled Care Facility. Jim was born in Scotland, Indiana on May 23, 1930 to the late Charles and Amy Isenogle. Jim was a graduate of Scotland High School and served his country in the United States Air Force from 1951 to 1955. After the Air Force, Jim was employed by Indiana Bell Telephone Company (AT&T / Lucent Technologies) for 30 years and retired in 1985. Jim is survived by his wife of 53 years, Inge Isenogle and their son and daughter-in-law Stephen & Rena Isenogle of St. Louis, Missouri and their children Sarah, Spencer and Grace and by his sister Norma Isenogle of Greenwood, Indiana. Jim was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters Maysel Lloyd, Mary Opal Asdell, and one brother Charles Lee Isenogle.

Visitation will be held at Jenkins & Sons Funeral Home in Bloomfield, Indiana, Sunday December 21st, from Noon until service at 2 PM. A brief grave site service will follow at the Scotland Cemetery in Scotland , Indiana . In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made: to Scotland Cemetery Fund, R.R. 2, Box 300 , Bloomfield, Indiana 47424, to "The Coalition for Pulmonary Fibrosis" at <http://coalitionforpf.org/>, or to your favorite charity in Jim's name.

Tribute Wall

“ James B. Isenogle

Jeff Herndon - December 21, 2008 at 10:49 AM