“ Jim and Judy: for the past few years Rick and I have gone back to our old church Bloomfield First Christian. When we would greet each other (prior to covid) I would turn around and the same kind man would shake my hand and we'd say good morning. After a few Sundays of this he moved up to sit beside me and said "I'm Scott and I figured I'd sit beside you and we could talk without you turning around ." I told him I was Ron Vandeventer's sister, Judy. Thus began our Sunday morning visits. I never knew he was your son. He was kind and friendly and I looked forward to seeing him each Lord's day. This past year our church time has been very limited. We actually went back today (March 7). It was strange not to have Scott sitting there to my right. I missed him and know as parents you will miss him more. Take comfort that he is in a better place than those of us still here in this world. My thoughts and prayers are with you both and your whole family.
