“ I just wanted to say that I thank you all for your condolences and I am sorry I waited so long to say that. My dad was such an awesome person and I am sure you all know that! He was one of those people you only meet once in a lifetime. I as well as "bub" and the rest of our small makeshift family miss him greatly. Also I am glad that even the family I havnt seen or talked to since my mothers death has sent appogies. It means a great deal to me since it has been so long! WE LOVE YOU DAD!

Thank you aunt Susan. It means a lot to me and bub and also thank you for the offer. Its been a hard time but we have managed to make it through it all fairly okay at the very least. My dad was an awesome person and it pains me he wont even get to see my 15th birthday here soon or walk me down the aisle when the time comes. but I know he will see it all wherever he is. we will definitely miss him bunches.

“ I want to offer my condolences to the Ridgway family. It is a painful thing to lose a love one in death; even Jesus, when Lazarus died, "gave way to tears"(John 11: 35). It pains our Creator, too, and he has promised to bring our love one back to life at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will rise ...Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life" then "he will swallow up death forever ..." (Isaiah 25:8). I hope these words give you comfort.

“ My deepest sympathies to the family for your loss. Jason and I hadn't talked really after high school but I counted him as one of my best friends in elementary. He is inextricably linked to the memory of my youth, and many laughs were shared. My heart goes to his wife, children and parents; may solace find you and comfort you.
