“ Aunt Jeanine was a beautiful person.
I remember so many fun times when we visited.

Don and Aunt Jeanine opened their home many times for all of us.

*She was a sweet lady.
She had a great laugh.*

She will be missed.

She is now in heaven and with her sisters and her brother (my dad).

“ Aunt Jeanine was truly an amazing, caring, loving and spiritual women. She will be missed but will be remembered in our memories. We loved the phone calls and texts when Indiana was playing Ohio State in basketball (her favorite sport). She is home now and without pain. We love her so much.

“ Jeanine was my Aunt.. I always thought of her as the most elegant, the most beautiful woman. I will always remember my times staying at her house with my cousins from a very young age. I remember I loved it there so much but I usually got homesick. But not once do I ever remember her getting frustrated with me for non stop crying. Those memories will always hold a special place in my heart. I will miss her so much..
