“ Irene, Joe, Jason & Jerry
I am so sorry to hear about Jeff. Although I had lost touch with him after High School I have always thought a great deal about him and all of you. Jeff was always such a fun and caring person all through school and many people cared for him a great deal. May you take comfort in knowing that Jeff is now at peace.

“ Joe, Irene, Jerry and Jason - Jeff was one of my best friends in school. He was such a charismatic guy who always brought a smile to my face! Although I hadn't seen Jeff in many years, he always held a special place in my heart and I will always have wonderful memories of our times together in high school! I am very sorry for your loss!

“ Irene, Joe, Jason & Jerry,
You have my heartfelt sympathy.
I wish there are words to take away the sorrow of losing a son & brother. I know there are not any or I would write them.
As parents, we just don't understand why we must endure losing children. Only God knows.
You are in my thoughts and prayers

“ jeff was truly a one-of-a-kind guy who brought happiness, laughs, and smiles to all of us who knew him! i know that jeff had been dealt his fair share of "life" and i pray that his heart is at peace and he is finding comfort in his life with the Lord!!! RIP Big Dawg - it is time to breathe deep and be at peace!!! luv ya skompy!!!

“ To have a son and brother as wonderful as Jeff is something to be proud of. He truly changed my life in just the short time I have known him. There was never a time that I walked away from Jeff that he did not tell me he loved me...he lived everyday to the fullest. I will keep you in my prayers, I love all of you.
